

Dream Come True

I am graduated from the famous universities in agriculture Chiang Mai province, Thailand. In the bachelors and master's degrees am graduate from Maejo University. My university teach me to love and learn about nature conservation. I have a goal in my life that I want to study abroad in a university that is famous for agriculture. Of course, I have find information about universities in Taiwan before I making a decision. When I make a decision got the experiences from my friends, who had the opportunity to an exchange student at National Chung Hsing University, Taiwan (NCHU). The most important thing that made the decision to choose to study at NCHU is I have got the scholarship and Taiwan is a country in Asia, it not far from Thailand the lifestyle may not be different. Including my family they supporting me to study in Taiwan. More importantly, myself, before that I had the fear and anxiety of going out to live abroad. But when I listened from my friends talk about the story and feelings when they was an exchange student at NCHU. There are many trees, shady, there is a pond in the middle of the university and have ducks and goose walk around. We can be seen, take pictures, and can feed them. The most importantly, the people are cute, kind, and friendly. In the transportations is so convenient easy to travel. Therefore, it made me feel want to bring myself to that kind of environments. It gave me the determination and effort to get there. My goals and ambitions were getting closer and closer to me that I would have to go to the NCHU Taiwan. Moreover, my advisors are also alumni from NCHU. So I can ask for advice including to share the stories regarding the life of foreign students as well. All that makes me want to continue study in a doctorate degree abroad. In my expectation is to study happily. Meet a good colleague and live in good environment.

At the moment I have entered and am pursuing my PhD in department of forestry at NCHU Taiwan. From the first day until today, I really enjoyed my student life here because every day is faced with a new and exciting story including culture, language, and various story. There must be some learning and adjustment, but not much. So it makes my not difficult to stay in NCHU. The main thing I have to adjust is a language. In terms of language, it can be learned in many ways. In the college also offers basic Chinese language instruction. I try to practice and learn more try to talk with my friends and join the class so that I hope I can communicate properly and apply it in daily life. The advantages and strengths of NCHU, Taiwan. The first thing that needs to be mentioned is scholarship funding. Is give me an opportunity which is the reason why I decided to study here. University have environment that I like. There are many trees and shady trees, in my free time I like to go walking around, sitting and watching the fish in the pond that is the highlight of the university. In outsiders people can take a walk in the university as well, there is no school uniform, have fitness facility, and there have Thai student clubs in the university which gathered together in various festivals to do culture activities. More importantly thing, this university has an OIA especially caring for international students. OIA providing information, spreading news, including organizing fun activities throughout the academic year, both NCHU own field trips and field trips are organized in conjunction with TCUS affiliated universities. Making it possible to make a new friends from different universities. And also organizing activities to spread the culture of that country and various activities. This article also promote from our OIA to writing an article for share good experiences.

My dream has come true in regards to coming to study in Taiwan and in the beautiful university. The next dream is how to study successfully and according to the criteria with happily. As my expectations from the beginning have brought me to good points. My studies go smoothly. There are some problem but it goes through well. My advisors and my colleagues are very good. It gives me the energy to study and work with quality. I think the NCHU is one of the best universities. I am very impressed on this university. That why I chose to bring myself to here. Thank you for every opportunity and encouragement. I have the courage to open up my heart to meet the new challenges. Lastly, fear is something that we create ourselves. "Do your best every day in your own way"
