

My University Life at TCUS

Hello, you can call me Wonder. I am from Eswatini, a small country in Southern Africa that hits well beyond its weight with its national spectacles and natural possessions. Others may know this country by its colonial name Swaziland. I am a graduate student in National Chung Hsing University Taiwan, studying MSc in Soil and Environmental Sciences.

Why choose TCUS

Strengths of TCUS

The scholars, professors, staff and all and sundry are wonderful people in TCUS. Generally Taiwanese people are supportive, good hearted, absolute considerate, generous and pleasingly wonderful. Taiwan society brings up a sophisticated and soft hearted people. The learning structure in TCUS is one of the best. Things are clearly explained in booklets and online system. The website has information and answers to questions you might have as an individual. Information about courses is clearly explained in the course selection system. The lecturers, students and staff members are very helpful in TCUS. TCUS has the best professors because they have topmost best qualities of effective educators. They are dedicated to teaching, patient, caring and kind hearted. They develop good relationships with their students. In order to create a positive and productive environment they actively engage students in learning. TCUS actively updates students about current activities and bring lot of opportunities to students. Taiwan Comprehensive University System (TCUS) has a very good academic and social reputation. The academies offer strong educational curriculums. The way we see things determines our purposes. The biggest way to broaden our perspectives is through education. Through the learning quest we paint the story of our lives and TCUS gives bright color or rather meaning to our lives. TCUS has something big to offer to students and that consist of strong future job prospects. A place that offers great excellence academic resources and rich social atmosphere, should give you reasons enough to study in it. Taiwan is the best for high quality life with great operational life, affordability and easy access to things such as healthcare, food and internet. Furthermore, Taiwan is friendly and very safe. TCUS offers the best Universities in Taiwan and in fact one of the very best Universities in the world. Among other things I chose TCUS because of the wonderful interdisciplinary offered. I used other appropriate factors, such as career opportunities, financial possibilities, application requirements, location, reputation and I put many more other things into consideration remarkably TCUS still came up to offer the best. Among other things the mix and high number of International students in TCUS creates a rich community.
